We have carefully considered this part of your request and have concluded that to disclose vehicle registrations and chassis numbers could lead to the identification of an individual. This would be unfair and breach the First Data Protection Principle. We believe that it is likely that the information may exempt under section 40(2) of the Freedom of Information Act by virtue of section 40(3)(a)(i).

S40(2) is described as "Any information to which a request for information relates is also exempt information if –

(a) it constitutes personal data which do not fall within subsection (1) and

(b) either the first or the second condition below is satisfied

S40(3) provides that –

"The first condition is –

(a) in a case where the information falls within any of paragraphs (a) to (d) of the definition of "data" in section 1(1) of the Data Protection Act 1998, that the disclosure of the information to a member of the public otherwise than under this Act would contravene –

(i) any of the data protection principles, or

(ii) Section 10 of that Act (right to prevent processing likely to cause damage and distress) and the Data Protection Act defines personal data as information which relates to a living individual who can be identified (a) from that data.

Additionally, providing the vehicle registration would be likely to prejudice the prevention and detention of crimes, and is therefore exempt from disclosure under s.31 of the FOIA. Providing a structured list of vehicle data, including registration numbers, if fully released would be more likely than not to provide useful for unlawful purposes. Specifically, the provision of a structured list would facilitate the identification of existing registration numbers suitable for vehicle closing.

The information supplied to you continues to be protected by the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988. You are free to use it for your own purposes, including any non-commercial research you are doing and for the purposes of news reporting.

If you wish to discuss any of the above, please contact us, quoting the FOI reference number above.

If you are unhappy with the way in which we have handled your request, please contact the Data Protection and Freedom of Information Lead in the first instance. If you wish to make a formal complaint, you should write to our Complaints Manager at Torbay and South Devon NHS Foundation Trust, First Floor Bowyer Building, Torbay Hospital, Torquay TQ2 7AA or by email to tsdft.feedback@nhs.net

If you are not content with the outcome of your complaint or the internal review, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Generally, the Information Commissioner will only make a decision once you have exhausted the complaints and/or internal review process provided by us. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: The Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF or through this link https://ico.org.uk/global/contact-us/

Yours sincerely,

Freedom of Information Team
